DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claim 7 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form.

The claim broadens the scope of claim 1, which recites “a thin intermediate metal plate ... soldered both to the metal turbulence plate and to the cover plate.”

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 1, the phrase “in particular oil cooler for motor vehicles” renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Regarding claims 4 and 9-10, the phrase “preferably solder-plated at each side” renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tajima et al (5,511,612). Figures 2 and 4 of Tajima et al disclose a brazed stacked plate heat exchanger comprising trough-shaped plates 35 and turbulence plates 107 with passage openings 67 and 79, base plate 71 and cover plate 47 with uppermost plate 35, which is read as an “intermediate plate.”

Claims 1, 3, 6 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Brost et al. Figures 5-7 of Brost et al disclose a soldered stacked plate heat exchanger comprising trough-shaped plates 2 and turbulence plates 13 with unlabelled passage openings (Figure 7), base plate (i.e. lowermost plate 2) and cover plate 25 with uppermost plate 2, which is read as an “intermediate plate.”

Regarding claims 6 and 15, Figures 6-7 of Brost et al disclose spherical impressions in the cover plate 25 coinciding with the passage openings.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 4-5, 10, 12-13 and 16-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Tajima et al (5,511,612) or Brost et al.

Tajima et al or Brost et al discloses all the claimed limitations except the specific thickness of the intermediate plate.

The specific thickness of the intermediate plate is considered to be an obvious design expedient, producing no new and/or unexpected results and solving no stated problem. One of ordinary skill in the art would employ any thickness of the intermediate plate to achieve a desired structural integrity.

Regarding claims 5 and 12-13, the specific and relative diameters of the passage opening and stamped formation are considered to be obvious design expedients, producing no new and/or unexpected results and solving no stated problems.

Regarding claims 16-17, as applied to claims 6 and 15 above, Figures 6-7 of Brost et al disclose spherical impressions in the cover plate 25 coinciding with the passage openings.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2, 8-9, 11 and 14 are would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
